

Avian Brands Resmi Menerbitkan Climate Risk Report Perdana Berbasis IFRS S2

Surabaya, 8 Juni 2026 - Avian Brands secara resmi menerbitkan Climate Risk Report pertama perusahaan Pada tanggal 16 Maret 2026 bersamaan dengan publikasi Sustainability Report 2025. Berbeda dengan Sustainability Reports yang sudah diterbitkan sejak tahun 2021. Penerbitan Climate Risk Report ini menjadi langkah strategis perusahaan dalam memperkuat transparansi, tata kelola keberlanjutan, serta kesiapan perusahaan dalam menghadapi risiko dan peluang perubahan iklim.

Climate Risk Report tersebut disusun sebagai bentuk komitmen Avian Brands dalam mengadopsi dan beradaptasi terhadap perkembangan standar pelaporan keberlanjutan global, khususnya IFRS S2 terkait Climate-related Disclosures yang diterbitkan oleh International Sustainability Standards Board (ISSB).

Melalui laporan ini, Avian Brands mulai mengintegrasikan identifikasi risiko iklim, analisis dampak bisnis, strategi mitigasi, serta pengelolaan transisi iklim ke dalam proses bisnis dan tata kelola perusahaan. Langkah tersebut menunjukkan bahwa isu perubahan iklim tidak lagi dipandang sebagai isu non-finansial semata, tetapi telah menjadi bagian penting dalam strategi keberlanjutan dan ketahanan bisnis perusahaan.

Dalam Climate Risk Report perdana ini, Avian Brands memaparkan berbagai aspek terkait climate governance, identifikasi risiko fisik dan risiko transisi, pendekatan manajemen risiko iklim, hingga peluang bisnis dari pengembangan produk dan operasional yang lebih berkelanjutan.

Penerbitan laporan ini juga menjadi bukti kesiapan Avian Brands dalam meningkatkan kualitas keterbukaan informasi kepada investor, regulator, pelanggan, dan stakeholder lainnya di tengah meningkatnya perhatian global terhadap isu iklim dan sustainability disclosure. Direktur Operasional dan Pengembangan Avian Brands,

Avian Brands Officially Publishes Its Inaugural Climate Risk Report Based on IFRS S2

Surabaya, June 8, 2026 - Avian Brands has officially published its inaugural Climate Risk Report on March 16, 2026, alongside the publication of its Sustainability Report 2025. Unlike the Sustainability Reports, which have been published since 2021, the publication of the Climate Risk Report represents a strategic step by the Company to strengthen transparency, sustainability governance, and corporate readiness for climate change-related risks and opportunities.

The Climate Risk Report was prepared as a form of Avian Brands' commitment to adopting and adapting to developments in global sustainability reporting standards, particularly IFRS S2 on Climate-related Disclosures issued by the International Sustainability Standards Board (ISSB).

Through this report, Avian Brands has started integrating climate risk identification, business impact analysis, mitigation strategies, and climate transition management into its business processes and corporate governance. This indicates the fact that climate change is no longer deemed as solely a non-financial issue, but a vital component of corporate sustainability and business resilience strategies.

In this inaugural Climate Risk Report, Avian Brands elaborates on aspects related to climate governance, identification of physical and transition risks, climate risk management approaches, and business opportunities arising from more sustainable product development and operations.

By publishing this report, Avian Brands proves its readiness to raise the quality of its information disclosure to investors, regulators, customers, and other stakeholders, amid growing global attention to climate-related issues and sustainability disclosure. Mr. Robert Christian Tanoko, Avian Brands' Director of Operations

Bapak Robert Christian Tanoko, menyampaikan bahwa perusahaan percaya keberlanjutan bisnis di masa depan sangat dipengaruhi oleh kemampuan perusahaan dalam beradaptasi terhadap perubahan iklim dan dinamika global.

“Climate Risk Report ini merupakan langkah awal Avian Brands untuk membangun sistem pelaporan iklim yang lebih transparan, terukur, dan terintegrasi dengan strategi bisnis perusahaan. Kami percaya bahwa perusahaan yang mampu memahami dan mengelola risiko iklim dengan baik akan memiliki daya tahan bisnis yang lebih kuat di masa depan,” ujar Robert Christian Tanoko.

Lebih lanjut, beliau menambahkan bahwa Avian Brands akan terus memperkuat implementasi sustainability melalui pengembangan efisiensi energi, pengurangan emisi, inovasi produk yang lebih ramah lingkungan, serta penguatan governance dalam pengelolaan risiko iklim perusahaan.

Penerbitan Climate Risk Report pertama ini sekaligus mempertegas posisi Avian Brands sebagai salah satu perusahaan nasional yang mulai aktif mengadopsi praktik sustainability disclosure berbasis standar internasional dan mendukung agenda transisi menuju ekonomi rendah karbon di Indonesia.

and Development, expressed the Company’s belief that future business sustainability will be greatly shaped by its ability to adapt to climate change and global dynamics.

“This Climate Risk Report marks Avian Brands’ first step toward establishing a more transparent and measurable climate reporting system that is integrated with corporate business strategies. We believe that companies capable of effectively understanding and managing climate risks will have stronger business resilience in the future,” said Robert Christian Tanoko.

He went on to note that Avian Brands remains committed to advancing its sustainability initiatives through energy efficiency improvements, emissions reduction, environmentally-friendly product innovations, and stronger corporate governance in managing climate-related risks.

The publication of this inaugural Climate Risk Report further solidifies Avian Brands’ position as one of the country’s leading companies to actively adopt sustainability disclosure practices aligned with international standards, in support of the agenda for Indonesia’s transition to a low-carbon economy.
